ABSTRACT

The 2000 Factbook about the University of Alaska-Anchorage (UAA) provides student enrollment data, student performance data, faculty information, and financial information. The UAA encompasses a university system, five affiliated community colleges, and a distance learning program. Work has been completed for UAA's decennial institutional accreditation self-study and attention will be shifting to the development of key performance indicators and to preparing data in support of program assessments. Enrollment data include student headcount and credit hours percent change, UAA headcount by student characteristics, student credit hours by campus and course level, and student credit hours by subject/discipline. Highlights include: (1) the fall 1999 total student headcount for UAA campuses was 20,003, a decrease of 4% from the previous year; (2) student characteristics as a percent of total UAA student headcount shows that 43% were part-time female students, 25% were part-time male students, 18% were full-time female students and 14% were full-time male students; and (3) about 34% of total Anchorage first time freshmen were enrolled in remedial coursework for fall 1999 semester. Data such as student enrollment in remedial coursework, participation in adult learning center programs, undergraduate grade analysis, and mean SAT scores for freshmen were used as key performance indicators in this report. ## INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION TO THE 2000 UAA FACTBOOK

The availability of timely, reliable and valid measures of the work we perform is vital to the management of our enrollment and to the advancement of the quality of our academic programs and support services. Over the past several years, the Office of Institutional Planning, Research and Assessment has continuously improved the availability and usefulness of institutional data.

Like its predecessors, this year's Factbook improves the usefulness and accuracy of the data contained herein. We have completed the work for our decennial institutional accreditation self-study and attention will shift this year to the development of Key Performance Indicators and to preparing data in support of program assessments.

The information contained in this factbook reflects the empirical dimensions of our academic programs and the staffing of our schools and colleges. Our past early retirements, combined with new academic initiatives, necessitate a continuing scrutiny of the data to secure a balanced allocation of faculty and staff resources within our limited financial constraints. Filling vacated positions and arguing for new ones will be influenced by such measures as faculty-student ratio and numbers of majors and degrees, as well as the ratios of part- to full-time faculty. Thus the data herein makes an important contribution to our decision making.

As in prior years, I commend the 2000 FACTBOOK to you and encourage you to suggest ways in which we can continue to build on its usefulness.

Sincerely,

Edward Lee Gorsuch Chancellor

- 1. Total UAA includes Anchorage, Kenai, Kodiak, Mat-Su, Military Programs, UALC (RD), and PWSCC.
- 2. Military Programs does not include Elmendorf AFB or Ft. Richardson.
- 3. Headcount includes students enrolled in credit courses at the 050 level and above, with auditors.
- 4. Percentages may not add to 100 due to rounding.
- 5. For this table, and all tables which include class standing, the following definition was used for first-time freshman:

  Student admitted with an admit code of FT (first-time admitted), and having a student type of F (first-time enrolling), or a student type of C (continuing enrollment)—for those continuing to Fall from Summer. The current semester is the first time the student has ever attended an institution of higher education. Except, the student could have been first-time in Summer semester and continued into Fall, and still be a first-time freshman. The current definition does not include students who could be first-time freshmen if they are current high school graduates, even though they may have taken courses for credit previously. A process for identifying these students has begun and future reports should include this sub-group as well.
- 6. For this table, and all tables which include Alaska Region of Origin, the following definition was used:
  Alaska Region of Origin determined by using the origin at entry (OE) address given by students at the time of enrollment.
  For students who did not provide an OE address, the mailing address was used to determine origin at entry.

For students who did not provide an OE address, the mailing address was used to determine origin at entry.

<sup>4.</sup> For this table, and all tables which include class standing, the following definition was used for first-time freshman:

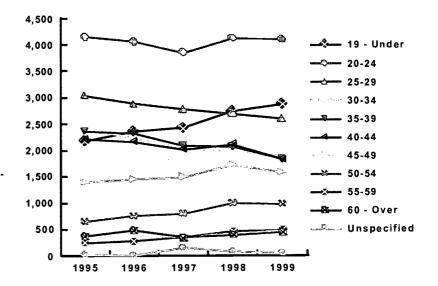

Student admitted with an admit code of FT (first-time admitted), and having a student type of F (first-time enrolling), or a student type of C (continuing enrollment)—for those continuing to Fall from Summer. The current semester is the first time the student has ever attended an institution of higher education. Except, the student could have been first-time in Summer semester and continued into Fall, and still be a first-time freshman. The current definition does not include students who could be first-time freshmen if they are current high school graduates, even though they may have taken courses for credit previously. A process for identifying these students has begun and future reports should include this sub-group as well.

For this table, and all tables which include Alaska Region of Origin, the following definition was used:
 Alaska Region of Origin determined by using the origin at entry (OE) address given by students at the time of enrollment.

TIME BLOCK USAGE

The following graphs represent classroom usage for Spring 1999 and charts the number of classes scheduled for each time block. Time block usage is broken down for Monday/Wednesday, Tuesday/Thursday, Friday, and Weekend classes, as well as combined days usage.

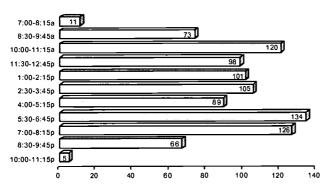

For the Spring 1999 semester, there were a total of 67 general classrooms, 10 of which had restrictions as to when classes were allowed to be scheduled into these rooms. All courses have been included in the report, whether a course used the room for one day or the entire semester. Any class using two or more time blocks was counted in each time block the class used. Crossed and stacked courses were counted only once.

<sup>3.</sup> The Course Credit Hour (CCH) generated by a faculty member goes to the department in which the course is offered, not to the department to which the faculty member belongs.

<sup>5.</sup> If the CCH has a minimum and a maximum (e.g., a variable credit course), the faculty member is assigned the minimum credit, but the student is assigned the credit for which he/she registered.

<sup>4.</sup> For courses taught by faculty from other department, the Student FTE is credited to the department in which the course is offered, not to the department the faculty member belongs. This resulted in a higher Student/Faculty Ratio for departments in which faculty are mainly from other departments. (Engineering Science and Honorary Program are examples.)
